

The Evolution of DPP: Past, Present, and Future

Please join us on February 4th, 2015 for a special APA-HI program featuring former and current Directors of the City & County of Honolulu's Department of Planning and Permitting (DPP). Continuing on 2013's exploratory program featuring former and current State Office of Planning Directors, this year's panel will examine the past, present, and future of planning in Honolulu.

Panelists will include:

- George Atta, FAICP, 2013-present;
- David Tanoue, Esq., 2009-2012;
- Henry Eng, FAICP, 2005-2008;
- Randall Fujiki, FAIA, 2000-2002; and
- Jan Sullivan, Esq., 1997-1999.

Leo Asuncion, AICP (Acting Director, Office of Planning) will serve as the event's moderator.

Date and Time:

Wednesday, February 4th, 2015, 11:30am-1:30pm.

Check-in will begin at 11:30am, and the panel presentation will begin at 12:00pm.

Venue: The Plaza Club, 900 Fort Street Mall, Suite 2000

Lunch includes the Plaza Club's daily buffet consisting of soup of the day, two entrees, seasonal vegetables, starches, assorted salads, and assorted desserts. Coffee, tea, and iced tea are included with lunch, and soft drinks will be available for an additional charge.

Cost is $45.00 for APA, ULI, LURF, AIA, ASLA, HEA, and BIA members, $50 for non-members, $35 for students. Please sign up to guarantee a seat.

AICP Members: We will be submitting the event to APA in order to receive CM credits. Upon approval by APA, an email will be sent with the CM credit information.
