Congratulations, Aki Marceau! She passed the AICP written examination in May 2014. Aki is the Land Use and Sustainability Manager at the Honolulu Authority for Rapid Transportation (HART). Prior to joining HART, she was a transportation planner for Parsons Brinckerhoff, the General Engineering Consultant for the Honolulu Rail Transit Project. She received a Master of Regional Planning from Cornell University and a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Studies from Haverford College. Fluent in Japanese, she is an active member of the US Japan Council (USJC) and was selected as a delegate for the Tomodachi-Mitsui Leadership Program and USJC Emerging Leaders Program. In her free time, she enjoys static trapeze and writes short stories as a member of the Kaimuki Writers Workshop.

AICP Membership

The American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) is the professional arm of the American Planning Association. AICP certifies practicing city, regional, and rural planners and promotes continuing education, ethics, and professional development. To join AICP, members must submit an application to APA and take a written examination. The exam is scheduled during a two-week period in May and November of each year. For more information on the next exam, please visit this website: www.planning.org/certification/currentexam/.

For eligibility requirements and other information about AICP, please visit this website: www.planning.org/aicp. If you need assistance in preparing for the exam, please contact Professor Peter Flachsbaart, Ph.D., AICP, either by phone (956-8684) or email (flachsba@hawaii.edu) at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa. As the Chapter's Professional Development Officer, Peter offers review sessions prior to the exam.
